NOTE:

A VOC level of  means the product still needs to be tested for its VOC content. Please contact Bostik if you require a certificate to be supplied for this particular product. You can e-mail your request to jenifer.spiteri@bostik.com Once I see product has not been tested, a request is sent into the chemist to undergo testing of VOC content.

A VOC level of "0" is a true value.

Please be aware if you have asked for a product which belongs in a group with a range of colours the VOC content may vary, they are not always the same value. Please contact Bostik if you need confirmation on a specific colour (please quote item code if available).

Thank-you
